WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

I hope you are enjoying the final weeks of the summer season and preparing for the start of the academic year. In this issue, we are sharing important updates from offices that support research at TC, a call for nominations for an early career award, announcement of the student recipients of the Provost's Dissertation Research Award, and information about funding opportunities with deadlines in September and October.

Teachers College updated its Conflict of Interest \(COI\) policies and procedures to adhere to federal regulations. The Office of Sponsored Programs (OSP) will host a roundtable and training session for TC faculty researchers on Tuesday, September 24, 2014. Please see the details in this newsletter and the information on the OSP website. We will share more information in September.

The TC Institutional Review Board \(IRB\) team recently implemented its Mentor IRB Alert System, which will notify TC faculty and student researchers of any pending actions related to current protocol submissions.

The Early Career Strage Prize was established in 2009 by Teachers College alumna Alberta Strage to recognize the achievements of early career faculty. We are asking department chairs to nominate an early career faculty member whose recent publication made a significant contribution to their field. Please submit your nominations to the Office of the Vice Dean for Research (vdr@tc.columbia.edu) by Monday, September 30th.

We are delighted to congratulate our faculty awardees of external awards and our student awardees of the Provost's Dissertation Research Award. We would like to thank the following faculty judges for reviewing the student applications: Dr. Judith Burton, Dr. Lisa Levinson, Dr. Elaine Smolen, Dr. Youmi Suk, and Dr. Helen Verdeli.

I encourage you to review the list of current funding opportunities with upcoming deadlines in September and October.

Please feel free to contact me with your questions, ideas, or suggestions. I look forward to hearing from you at vdr@tc.columbia.edu.

Warm regards,
Caroline

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM OFFICES THAT SUPPORT RESEARCH AT TC

OFFICE OF THE VICE DEAN FOR RESEARCH: Call for Nominations for the Early Career Strage Prize Submission Deadline: September 30, 2024

The Early Career Strage Prize was established in 2009 by Teachers College alumna Alberta Strage and her husband Henry to recognize the achievements of early career faculty. The Strage Prize recognizes the innovation and unique contribution of a faculty member's recent publication (journal article, conference paper, book, book chapter) to research and practice. The $3,500 prize money will be used to produce a video or multimedia presentation of the publication and highlight the faculty member's work.

Nomination process and timeline: We are asking department chairs to nominate an early career faculty member whose recent publication made a significant contribution to their field. Please submit your nominations to the Office of the Vice Dean for Research (vdr@tc.columbia.edu) by Monday, September 30th. In the subject line, please indicate the Strage Prize. Materials to submit: (1) A recommendation letter; (2) A copy of the publication; and (3) A copy of the nominee's CV and TC faculty bio.

OFFICE OF SPONSORED PROGRAMS (OSP): Update to TC's Conflict of Interest (COI) Policy and Procedures

Teachers College has updated its Conflict of Interest \(COI\) policies and procedures to adhere to federal regulations. OSP will host a COI roundtable and training session on September 24, 2014, 11 am - 12:30 pm to discuss these changes and will be joined by the Offices of the Vice Dean for Research and the General Counsel. The session is open to all researchers, individuals interested in engaging in research, and those involved in external sponsored funding, including contracts. Participation in the training session on September 24th will fulfill the federal guidelines requiring COI training. For more information, please visit the OSP website.

INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD (IRB): Mentor IRB Alert System

The IRB is excited to announce its new Mentor IRB Alert System, which will notify you of any pending actions related to current protocol submissions. Its aim is to improve communications with the IRB office. These alerts will help you stay informed about critical information, deadlines, and changes relevant to your research activities in the Mentor IRB Alert System. You should have received system-generated notices for any pending actions required from you in the Mentor IRB Alert System. Please review these notices and take the appropriate action: submit a protocol withdrawal if the submission is no longer applicable, submit the revisions requested by the IRB reviewer, or contact IRB@tc.edu for guidance on next steps.
